

MEADOW WILLIAMS Actress / Writer / Producer

Meadow Williams is grateful for her amazing journey from humble beginnings on a Tennessee farm to a career in Hollywood. Her natural humor and easygoing Southern charm have been complemented by diverse life experiences, giving Williams a deep wellspring of understanding to draw upon in her extensive film work.

Williams started acting in television at a young age; she was seen in hit shows such as Married... with Children, Murder, She Wrote and The Larry Sanders Show. Her career transitioned from television to movies when she landed a role in the iconic motion picture The Mask, opposite Jim Carrey. The part led to a role as Kevin Bacon's lady friend in the Academy Award–winning Apollo 13 directed by Ron Howard.

The project Williams has found most fulfilling, for the way it dissects one of the most critical periods in American and world history, is the drama American Traitor: The Trial of Axis Sally, in which the actress stars opposite Al Pacino. Based on a true story, the film has Williams playing a radio personality who broadcast English-language propaganda for the European Axis powers during World War II. Adapted from the book "Axis Sally Confidential," Pacino plays the lawyer who represents Williams' character after she is arrested for treason.

Switching gears, Williams appeared in After, based on the hit novel of the same name. In front of the camera she played a college professor, and behind the camera Williams was a producer on this highly charged romance drama. Meadow has continued to expand her work in all aspects of filmmaking, with numerous screenwriting and producing credits as she moved into diverse themes and different genres.

Hugely successful and popular with fans, Den of Thieves wowed audiences with high energy performances, with Williams appearing alongside Gerard Butler. This was followed by the prison action drama Backtrace (2018), with Meadow working alongside veteran actors Sylvester Stallone and Matthew Modine.

Several recent releases demonstrate Williams' acting range, from a comedic role in 2023's The Donor Party, working alongside Malin Akerman and funnyman Jerry O'Connell, to 10 Minutes Gone (2019), a crime thriller starring beloved Bruce Willis, which had Williams playing a bartender full of surprises. In the action-thriller Boss Level (2020) from writer-director Joe Carnahan, Williams plays a redheaded assassin alongside action stars Frank Grillo, Mel Gibson and Naomi Watts. And Williams has also worked alongside acting legend Ray Liotta as his trophy wife in Every Last Secret with Sophie Turner and Mark Margolis.

In addition, Williams was honored to star opposite acting legend Robert De Niro in the film Savage Salvation. Her character, Deputy Zeppelin, works in a drug-ridden small town alongside De Niro as the imposing Sheriff.

Williams continued her busy film career with two recent releases. She returned as Holly in Den of Thieves 2, showing new sides to the character's personality, and in World-Breaker with Milla Jovovich and Luke Evans, set in a post-apocalyptic world.

Just two weeks ago in mid December, Williams wrapped The Untitled Eternity Film starring opposite William H. Macy, Greg Kinnear and Nolan Funk. Set against the backdrop of the Mediterranean, the erotic thriller follows Calvin Wells (Funk), a charismatic conman who sets his sights on Katrine Winters (Williams), a mysterious billionaire widow. Drawn in by her fortune and allure, Calvin accepts an invitation aboard her superyacht Eternity, only to realize her glamorous world hides sinister secrets.
